

CORPORATE PARTNERSHIP

Corporate Partnership will be limited to 10 companies

Energy Manager Magazine is the only magazine dedicated solely to the energy needs of the Public Sector. With over 8,000 readers, the magazine offers unrivalled access to energy/sustainability and procurement managers in this lucrative sector.

We are offering the opportunity to become a Corporate Partner – the most cost-effective way for you to target this often difficult to access market.

By becoming a Corporate Partner you will receive substantial marketing benefits enabling you to highlight your commitment to work with and support the public sector effort to become leaders in sustainability throughout the year.
